Mercedes gives back to the community

Since Tom Maoli's purchase of Mercedes-Benz of Goldens Bridge in 2017, Celebrity Motor Cars has been committed to being an essential part of the social and economic well-being of the local Westchester County community.

Part of the auto group's culture is to build positive, strong relationships within their community as well as their customers.

For this particular effort, during the holiday season, Mercedes-Benz of Goldens Bridge chose to work closely with The Community Center of Northern Westchester in Katonah. Mercedes-Benz of Goldens Bridge had an initiative with their customers who brought in non-perishable food for families in need for the months of November through January, generating over 218 pounds of food. The Community Center of Northern Westchester seeks to improve the well-being and self-sufficiency of neighbors in need in Northern Westchester by providing food, clothing, programs and other resources.

"Philanthropy is like farming," said Celebrity Motor Cars CEO Tom Maoli. "You plant seeds and an entire field grows, which produces hundreds and thousands of crops."

With thousands of Westchester County families in need, Mercedes-Benz of Goldens Bridge's long term partnership with Community Center of Northern Westchester is sure to make an impact on the lives of others.

When asked why he gives back, Maoli replied, "It is Biblical that what you give out comes back in spades and then you have even more to give. Not sure why more people do not see it."

Either way, Maoli and Mercedes Benz of Goldens Bridge remain committed to the community.
